Dear Parents/carers of children in Falcon Class,

On Friday 9th February (9am) Falcon class have their class-led assembly. We are going to be focusing on our topic, World War Two, and in particular, evacuation.

To add to the excitement of the assembly, I would like to invite them to dress up as an evacuee from that time. They would need to bring the costume with them and get changed when they arrive at school. These outfits do not require you to purchase any extra items you do not already have at home. The children's normal school uniform such as a white shirt and trousers/skirt would be sufficient.

You may want to make a gas mask box at home out of a cardboard box and string and bring a teddy or small brown suitcase to hold. I have put some ideas at the bottom of this letter. Please do not feel any pressure to organise an elaborate costume as it will only be used for the assembly itself.

I look forward to inviting you to our assembly so you can hear about all the learning we have been doing on our topic.

Yours sincerely,
Miss Etheridge

Girls could wear a pinafore dress and beret, or school skirts and a white blouse. A knitted shawl. Long white/grey socks and brown or black school shoes are again ideal. Hair in plaits or with a ribbon or headband would be appropriate.

Boys could wear their usual school trousers or shorts. If available, a flat cap would be great and a cardigan, jumper, tank top or jacket with black or brown school shoes.
